

The Scholarship Loan Committee met on July 6, 2018 to consider nine applications for loan for the 2018-2019 academic year. Five were from students already in the program, one was from a student who was in the program but did not apply last year and three were new applicants. All nine applications were approved. In accordance with our change of policy first year student applicants receive $2000 and continuing students receive $3000.

The Students approved are:
