Program

Guest Speaker: The Reverend Jay MacLeod

Rector, The Episcopal Church of Saint Andrew, New London, NH

As a parish priest in Britain's most culturally diverse neighborhood in Bedford, Jay saw relationships between the various religious factions seriously deteriorate after the 2006 London subway bombings. Recognizing that the love of Cricket was the single common thread between these various groups, Jay established cricket leagues that were successful in reducing the existing high levels of suspicion and animosity. His efforts gained much interest throughout the Church of England. A 1979 graduate of Kearsage Regional High School, Jay came home in 2013 after twenty years of ordained ministry in England.

SPECIAL NOTE: Between 11:00 to 12:00 and 2:00 to 2:30, experts on the 2019 TRICARE Dental and Optical Insurance Program will be on hand to answer any questions.
