

DURHAM, NH- UNH ROTC HALL OF FAME

Please join us for the 21st annual University of New Hampshire
Veterans Day and ROTC Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and Scholarship Awards

Friday, November 9, 2018 | 1330 – 1630
Granite State Room | Memorial Union Building
Durham, NH

1330 – Social

1400 – Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony
and Walter and Mary Smyk Scholarship Awards Presentation

1600 – Retreat Ceremony, Thompson Hall flag pole

Please consider making a gift of any amount to support UNH ROTC when you register for this event.

RSVP by Wednesday, November 7th

UNH ROTC Hall of Fame Inductees have participated in the Air Force or Army ROTC programs at the University. They are selected for outstanding service to Country, the State of New Hampshire, their community, and/or the University of New Hampshire.

Being inducted this year are:

LTC (retired) William C. Hazen - UNH Class of 1958

BG (retired) Stephen M. Seay - UNH Class of 1968

The Veterans Day Ceremony serves as the stage to induct distinguished veterans into the UNH ROTC Hall of Fame. In the past 20 years 69 distinguished ROTC alumni have been honored. These notable alumni were not all career military officers. Many were career educators, business owners and public servants. The short list below is only a few of the high caliber ROTC alumni that have been inducted:

The highest ranking woman in the history of the Armed Forces - General Lori J. Robinson, '81,

Commencement Speaker and Honorary Degree Recipient - 2017

UNH 2013 Commencement Speaker - Lieutenant General Mary A. Legere, '82

UNH 2016 Honorary Degree Recipient - Colonel Colleen Ryan, '82

Former 2-time Interim President of UNH - Jere A Chase, '36

Former New Hampshire Governor - Stephen E. Merrill, '69

Medal of Honor recipient - Harl Pease Jr., '39

General parking is available in the Campus Crossing Visitor Lot \(J:17\)