

New Hampshire Chapter

Alex Ray is awarded the 2020 Granite State Warriors Award. Alex Ray has been a leader in New Hampshire's hospitality industry since opening the first Common Man in Ashland in 1971. Employing more than 1,000 people, The Common Man today has 15 restaurants, 2 Common Man Inns, a Spa, a Company Store and The Flying Monkey Movie House & Performance Center.

In 2019, Ray opened Boulder Point Veteran Housing in Plymouth, NH dedicated to veterans experiencing homelessness. Partnering with the VA, White River Junction, VT and the US HUD Veteran Supportive Housing, Boulder Point offers 30 apartments in a 27,000 sq.ft., 2 story handicapped /adaptable building located on a picturesque 11-acre property. The program provides mentoring, case management, and supportive services for residents. All residents have access to coaching in eviction prevention, increasing household income and assets, increasing health and well-being, and general life and family skills. Boulder Point Veteran Housing offers the perfect role model for all communities trying to better support their veterans communities.
