USS Manchester Crew Returns to New Hampshire

The USS MANCHESTER (LCS-14) is an Independence-variant littoral combat ship of the United States Navy, embodying a blend of modern naval technology and historical heritage. Commissioned on May 26, 2018, in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, the ship is a tribute to the industrious spirit of the city of Manchester, New Hampshire. USS MANCHESTER is designed for versatility, capable of navigating both the vast expanses of open ocean and the shallower waters of littoral zones. This agility enables her to undertake a variety of missions, from mine warfare to humanitarian aid.
