

MOAA Career Transition, Financial Education and Military Benefits Events (July 2024)

MOAA has some great career transition virtual events happening in July! And, we are pleased to announce candidate registration for the annual Network for Success with MOAA is live (see below and social media tile attached).

As a reminder our career transition events support ALL RANKS of uniformed servicemembers, Veterans, military spouses, and surviving spouses. Please share broadly across your personal and professional networks.

Virtual Workshop Series: Find Your Dream Job. Tuesday, July 9, 16, and 23 from Noon-1:00 PM ET.

Register: <https://www.moaa.org/content/events/transition-and-career/moaa-series-land-your-dream-job/>.

No matter your industry or your experience level, MOAA's new three-part seminar will cover the transition tips and tools you need to begin (or continue) your journey of professional success. Join career transition specialist Capt. Pat L. Williams, USN (Ret), MOAA's program director for engagement and transition services as she helps you develop and hone your transition skills in three critical areas: networking, résumé writing, and interviewing. These classes will reveal and explain transition tips and tools that will bring you closer to your dream job: the one that makes you leap out of bed and race into morning rush hour, ready to begin another day. The one where you do what you love; are paid what you're worth; and enjoy making a difference.

Each one-hour workshop begins at noon Eastern:

- Module I, Networking (July 9): Up to 85% of job-seekers find their next job through networking ... are your connections up to the challenge? You'll get tips on mastering the art and science of networking, including how to tackle the powerful informational interview.
- Module II, Résumé Writing (July 16): An award-winning, eye-catching résumé is a MUST. Learn practical résumé writing tips; find out how to write to influence others; and discover the best methods to showcase your skills, talent, and experience.
- Module III, Interviewing (July 23): After great networking and with a polished résumé, you get the call: "We'd like you to come in for an interview." This is your opportunity to shine – to tell your unique professional story. Let MOAA show you how to get interview-ready.

Seats are limited due to the in-demand nature of this seminar – reserve your spot now!

Webinar: Protecting Yourself, and Your Family, From Cybercrime. Wednesday, July 17 from 2:00-3:00 PM ET.

Register: <https://www.moaa.org/content/events/finance/protecting-yourself,-and-your-family,-from-cybercrime/>.

Cybercrimes such as hacking and ransomware attacks already cost the world about \$8 trillion annually ... and they are on the rise, with servicemembers, veterans, and their families often prime targets. Join Lila Quintiliani, MOAA's program director for financial and benefits education/counseling, and special guest Ally Armeson, executive director of programs at the Cybercrime Support Network, for a webinar that will explore what cybercrime is and how it affects the military and veteran community. Topics for discussion will include:

- Top scams that affect servicemembers, veterans, and their families
- The impact of generative artificial intelligence (AI) on scams
- What to do immediately if you believe you've been scammed
- Steps you can take to build a foundation of security
- How to spot – and guard against – a phishing attempt

Register today for this webinar and better understand how to keep your personal data, and your finances, safe from scammers.

Webinar: How Data Can Help You Succeed in Your Professional Transition. Wednesday, July 31 from 2:00-3:00 PM ET.

Register: <https://www.moaa.org/content/events/transition-and-career/how-data-can-help-you-succeed-in-your-professional-transition/>.

Your next employer will use data-driven analytics to help fill their open positions. Whether you are in uniform, a veteran in the civilian world, or a military spouse with a career on the move, join Brian Niswander, founder of Military-Transition.org, for a free webinar as he offers tools, techniques, and data-driven solutions to help you make making sound, informed decisions about your transition journey and reintegration process.

Don't miss this unique and exciting opportunity to learn from the experiences of veterans and spouses who've gone before you on the transition journey.

Network for Success with MOAA, Army Navy Country Club in Arlington, VA. Wednesday, October 2 from 5:30–9:00 PM ET.

Register: <https://www.moaa.org/content/events/transition-and-career/network-for-success-with-moaa/>.

Join MOAA for an evening of networking and professional development where you can engage with MOAA's career transition experts, hear from industry professionals, and grow your network for your next career opportunity! At our event, you'll have the chance to:

- Mingle in a professional networking setting with light refreshments
- Have your résumé reviewed for free by a MOAA transition expert
- Meet with a certified career coach to explore your options
- Connect with industry and talent acquisition professionals!
- Have your LinkedIn profile photo taken (benefit for PREMIUM and LIFE members and their spouses or MOAA Foundation donation)

This event is free and open to all ranks of uniformed servicemembers and Veterans along with military spouses and surviving spouses.